

Go to www.hotmail.com

Left click on Sign Up.

Left click on Get it free.

When you have finished answering all of the registration questions, left click on I Accept.

When you get to the Enter Password Reset Information section, you do not have to enter an alternate e-mail address, but you still have to answer the security question & answer.

Scroll down to the bottom, and left click on Continue. A box will pop up, Internet Redirection, left click on yes. Your registration is now complete.

Go to www.mail.com

Left click on Click here to sign up.

Create a log in name and choose the category mail.com.

Left click on Enter.

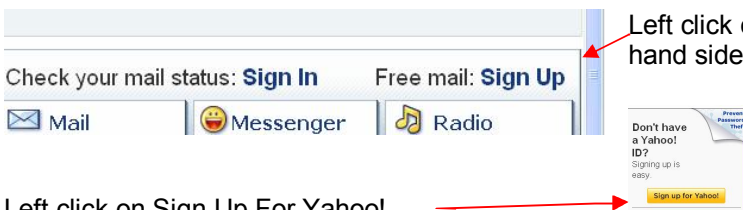

Left click on Click Here To Sign Up.

When you have finished answering all of the registration questions (you do not need to enter an alternate e-mail address, or an old e-mail address), make sure that you mark the box that you agree with the terms and conditions, then left click on Next.

There will be a bunch of advertisements that pop up. You need to have at least one Yes, and then change all other buttons to No and left click on Submit. On the next screen, left click on No Thanks.

Go to www.yahoo.com

Left click on Free mail: Sign Up (top right hand side of page).

Left click on Sign Up For Yahoo!

When you have finished answering all of the registration questions, left click on I Agree.

The next screen will let you know that you registration is complete. Please print that page out for your records.